

SUPER MANGA GIRL

Super Manga girl is a superhero that really loves Japan. She has an excellent memory and she remembers every manga that exists in the world. Of course, she can speak a lot of languages so she can read mangas in their original language. She is able to go into an anime to change the story. Mangaka come very frequently to see her because her advice is always good. She drew a lot of mangas by herself. Super Manga Girl can also make pens that can draw by themselves. When she was young, she took part in ice skating lessons, and now she has an excellent level. She is shy and has difficulties to make friends, but people that know her think she is cool and a good friend. She likes nature and she can talk to cats. She is keen on listening to music. Super Manga girl doesn't like films with classical plots and no message inside. She hates sprouts and can eat rice for breakfast.
