

PIZZA MAN

Hello I am 10 years old. I can climb, run and meditate. I like spinach and chocolate. I can swim and play football. I hate boats, airplanes and mathematics. I am good at dancing, running and walking. I am great at drawing, French and English. I am a disaster at skiing, gymnastics and climbing. And I speak French, English and Norwegian. I live in a pizza.

My favourite food is pizza and I am good at gymnastics.

I am bad at football. I hate cooking. I don't like girls. I love visiting amusement parks. I hate mathematics. I like my little brother. The Queen of England is my big sister and my dad is God. Tristan is my big brother. My little brother is my pet. And I like video games.

The super powers of my superhero is that he can create mine pizzas, be invisible, fly, transform water or lava in pizza and regenerate.
