

AN INSIGHT OF HOW TWO STUDENTS : LOIS AND REBECCA WOULD DEVELOP AN EMERGING CITY

Rebecca: Hello I'm Rebecca and today I'm' joined by Lois.

Lois: Hi everyone and Hi Rebecca !
As earlier said by Rebecca, my name is Lois and thank you for having me!

Rebecca: Well Lois, have you heard about the housing crisis which is taking place in the city ?

Lois : Of course! I even heard something like it was because of all jobs that have just been created in the city.

Rebecca: Yes! You're alright! Like what happened in Nairobi. And what do you think we can do about it ? Any remedy to combat it ?

Lois : First, I think that when this type of phenomenon springs up, it attracts a lot of singles people who are starting their careers and also families of which one of the members occupies one of the jobs...

Rebecca: And the ideal thing to do would be to house them---are on the same track on this?

Lois : Oh yes ! I was coming, my idea would be about creating two buldings, in adapted areas, one of them would house a dozen of modest and dwarfed studios adjusted for singles...

Rebecca: A dozen? The resident of the twelfth floor must not ne afraid of heights if he wants to enjoy his balcony !

Lois : Ahah...and the other would house a little less apartements but much bigger. The best would be apartments with three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a large living room and a large balcony for families.

Rebecca: I can add that there may be common areas like a swimming pool, an indoor or outdoor gym, or a small park for children and adults and a library.

Lois: Rebecca...it's like you're reading my mind !Al lthis will not be thrown out, it must be done with care to attract the most people.

Rebecca: I think it could be a greatl project and I hope it will be realised without constraints or obstruction.

Lois : I agree!
