

The Importance of Speaking Different Languages Podcast

by Nathan, Tiffany, Rebecca and Maria

Nathan :

Goodmorning everyone and welcome in our podcast about Importance of speak many languages. Today, to explain it to you, I m with Maria the journalist, Tiffany, Rebecca and Jean Paul. We hope you will enjoy it !

Maria :

Hello Nathan, how are you today? So where did you spend your holidays?

Can you tell us more about your holiday in...?

Nathan :

Hello Maria, I m good, thank you and you ? During my holidays I was in Island because I would to see a chess museum. During the 20th century, during the « war » between USA and URSS , they had a chess match called the match of the century. So as I am crazy about chess, I would to see this part of chess history.

Maria :

And what did you learn about their culture and way of life?

Would you like to go back?

Nathan :

First of all, in Reykjavik, the capital, people are pretty cool, and it 's a sympathetic community. But, even in summer it's cold, so you have to take some hot clauth and you can take a shower in thermal spring. There is beautiful landscapes, and it's a great destination. So I think I would to go back, why not.

Maria :

We are now moving on to Tiffany. Hello Tiffany, how are you? Where did you go during your vacation? And why did you decide to go to...?

Tiffany :

Goodmorning Maria, I'am fine thank you and you ? During my vacation i was in Spain, it'sa beautiful country

Maria :

I'am fine thank you. Okay, what are your best memories of your vacation in...?

Tiffany :

That I loved there is the culture, the dishes and the festival of Rio de Janeiro where people disguise herself.

Maria :

Would you like to go back and live there ?

Tiffany :

I love to go in Spain but I don't want to live there because my real favorite country is Japan.

Maria :

Thank you Tiffanay. The next is Rebecca. Hello Rebecca, how are you to today?

So where did you go during that long period?

Rebecca :

During this long period, I went to France to see my family and discover a bit more about the country.

Maria :

What places did you visit?

Rebecca :

I visited several places like Paris, the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre Museum, and some other famous neighborhoods.

Maria :

Interesting, what did you think of the Eiffel Tower and the Louvre Museum?

Rebecca :

I found the Eiffel Tower very impressive and beautiful, especially at night with the lights. The Louvre Museum was also incredible because there were a lot of famous works and history.

Maria :

What do you miss most about it ?

Rebecca :

What I miss the most is the atmosphere, the food, and the moments spent with my family and friends.

Maria :

We finish with Jean Paul. Hello Jean Paul, how are you?

Jean Paul :

I'am fine thank you, and you ?

Maria :

I' am fine thank you. What places did you visit?

Jean Paul :

I was in my father's village in Omoyé, which is located in Franceville.

Maria :

Okay, I see. What did you learn about their culture?

Jean Paul :

Yes, I was in Gabon, specifically in Oyem, in the village of Yenedoma, which is my mother's village, and I ate the traditional dish, Meza Yesu, and I saw young people dancing the traditional dances, Mvente and Elone

Maria :

What dishes did you enjoy eating there?

Jean Paul :

I ate cassava leaves, which is the traditional dish.

Maria :

Where will you be going next?

Jean Paul :

I could maybe go to Moanda

Maria :

We've reached the end of this program. We learned about Spain with Tiffany, cassava leaves with Jean Paul, Chess with Nathan, and France with Rebecca.

Thank you for your attention.
