

The Importance of Multiculturalism and the Beauty of Speaking Many Languages.

Premier GT1 writes...

The class of 1erGT2 did a visio-conference with our God Mother, who was also the invited guest by their Teacher, Mrs Natif-Coze, about multiculturalism. We were organised in four groups and we talked about different appearances of multiculturalism. In our group, there was Tiffany, Jean Paul, Maria, Rebecca and Nathan.

To show the beauty of multiculturalism, we decided to talk about different countries where you could spend your Holidays, in different languages. To be precise, we talked about culture, the reason is because we thought it's a good place to spend holidays, food and learn more about different traditions.

In this context, Tiffany talked about holidays in Spain in Spanish, Jean Paul talked about holidays in Gabon, so he spoke two Gabonese dialects; Fang and Obamba, Nathan talked about holidays

Ireland in English, off-course and Rebecca took us to France with the French Language. As a way to interact, some some questions. Maria, as a journalist, asked many interesting questions. It was fun !

Did this conference was a real chance and a great opportunity for us to grow our english and oral comprehension. It was very interesting to hear someone talk about her experience about multiculturalism and multilanguages in defferent country. It was very beautiful.

New vocabulary list

Eiffel tower : A famous French monument

Chessboard : Board where we play chess, in French we said « Echiquier »

Paella : Spanish dish

Fang : It's an ethnic group found in Gabon

Nyembwe : It's a Gabonese traditional dish

Reykjavic : It's the capital of Island

Multiculturalism : this word is used to mean the presence of, or support for the presence of, several distinct cultural or ethnic groups within a society