

EDINBURGH CASTLE EXPLORER'S QUIZ

EDINBURGH CASTLE

The Portcullis Gate kept invading armies out of the castle. It's actually made up of more than one gate. How many are there?

Cannons were fired from the Argyle Battery. How many cannon holes (sometimes known as gun loops) can you count?

Outside the National War Museum there is a statue of a man on a horse. Who is this military leader?

The castle vaults were used as a prison but also as a bakehouse. How many bread ovens can you find?

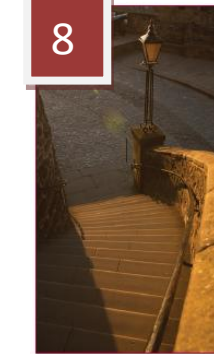

In the Royal Apartments there are two fireplaces. What animals can you see above them?

The wooden ceiling in the Great Hall dates back to 1511. What special name is given to this type of ceiling?

There are four stone lions in Crown Square. This one is grey. What colour are the other three?

Once the only way to get to the top of the castle was up the Lang Stairs. How many steps would you have to climb?