

In my time capsule, I have a picture of me when I was born. The last album of Taylor Swift : Reputation. I have some medals of speed skating. I also have a ticket for when I am going to Taylor Swift's concert. I have put my MP3 player with my headphones because I like listening to music. There is a Milka chocolate bar because it is my favourite one. There are some bracelets from where I went. I also have my sunglasses.
